

A. Have a detailed look at the photos and read the text:

Left: The bride is decorating her husband with a chain of flowers.

Right: After they went around the fire for seven times, both are throwing rice into the holy fire.

Wedding ceremonies in India are still part of the old traditions in all religious groups. On the pictures above you see details of the wedding ceremony of an Indian girl and her husband from Germany. They came in contact via internet. Then he went to India to ask her parents. The wedding took place in Mumbai. Indian wedding customs are different, depending on region or caste.

B. Work: There are wedding-ceremonies in Germany as well. Which ceremonies do you know? Describe: What is the background? Talk to your parents and ask for a photo if possible.
